PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

75 Civ. 6340

Decision by Kevin Thomas Duffy, D.J.: Dated June 18, 1976
is as follows:

"Various motions have been made to dismiss the complaint herein. I have spent many hours reviewing the 293 paragraphs document entitled "Complaint", particularly with a view to interpreting it in the most favorable light since the plaintiff is appearing pro se. it now appears clear to me that the allegations do not make out any justiciable cause of action.

The action is dismissed.

SO ORDERED."

ISSUES PRESENTED

1. Is there a justiciable cause of action?
2. Did Pascap Co., Inc., answer comply with FRCP Rule 4(b) and was its motion proper?

NATURE OF THE CASE

Plaintiff appeals from a decision of the District Court dismissing the complaint for failing to make out any justiciable cause of action.

COURSE OF THE PROCEEDINGS

Summons and Complaint served on Pascap Co., Inc., sued incorrectly as Pascap Scrap Iron Corp., on or about April 9, 1976.

Motion by co-defendant to extend time of all defendants to answer to May 31, 1976, granted.

Pascap Co., Inc., answer served May 28, 1976.

Motion to dismiss the complaint granted on June 18, 1976.

FACTS AND ARGUMENT

Pursuant to FRAP 28(c) the brief of Debevoise, Plimpton, Lyons & Gates, is hereby adopted and made a part hereof.

We agree that Judge Duffy was correct and there is no justiciable cause of action.

We also agree with the information and arguments set forth in the above mentioned brief.

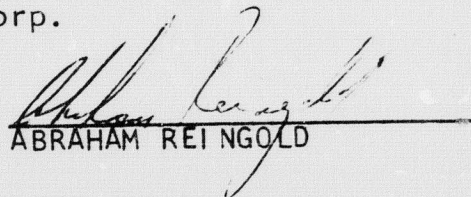

Besides the fact that the complaint is vague and unintelligible in part, three things seem clear:

First, there is no diversity of citizenship;

Second, an allegation of conversion of property is not a federal question;

Third, an examination of the courts records will reveal that the answer of Pascap Co., Inc., complies with FRCP Rule 4(b) and that its motion was, and is proper.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request the Court to dismiss the appeal as to the defendant Pascap Co., Inc., sued herein as Pascap Scrap Iron Corp.
